Help Me Escape

Future Judgment?

I would like to ask you, are you sure you will escape future judgment? Please don't put down or throw away this tract, but read all of it. It has great importance to your life. Many people say that all religions teach us to do good. That is a true statement, but can they help us escape future judgment. The Word of God says, "For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them." According to the standard of God, those who will escape the judgment of punishment in Hell are those who follow all the commandments from childhood till death, never doing wrong even one time. But if a person cannot follow all the commandments, they will be cursed (go to Hell). Truthfully, no one can attain to the standard of God. The best that anyone can do is "as filthy rags" in the sight of God.

You might wonder, if that's so, then how can I escape that future judgment? The Philippian jailor once asked this question of Paul and Silas, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" Paul and Silas answered him, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ." Why do we need to believe on Jesus Christ? Because there is no other way that we can be saved. The Bible says, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God." All people have turned away from the God Who loves them and gave His all for them. "For the wages of sin is death (in Hell)." All who sin must face punishment in Hell.

The Bible says, "Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus." As Jesus was dying on the cross, He said "It is finished," which means that you can be saved through the "finished work" of Jesus Christ. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." Man's spiritual condition is the same as a paralyzed person who cannot help themselves. They cannot even feed themselves. Jesus Christ provides living bread which is eternal life (life in Heaven). All you need to do is pray, "God be merciful to me a sinner."

Sinful man is separated from a holy God and will face a fearful future judgment in Hell. But Jesus loves you. All you have to do is receive Him. "As though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God."
